(4) A nation is a manifestation of its constituents desires. It represents the collective consciousness of people and thus if the desire is based on righteousness of heart, nation will be in order and harmony will persist.

Nations lead by such philosophy promotes qualities such as non violence, Equality, inclusiveness, sustainability and has helping attitude for other. In such a world lead by these nations peace may prevail.

Germany lead by Hitler during 1930's advocated hatred based on race. It has hinged its present based on the unjust done in past. The hatred of Hitler and his quest for glory lead to disharmony within Germany and Jews were suppressed. With all the negativity, world was never at peace & million of life was lost.

While on the other hand Nelson Mandela preached love and Equality among people. He won the apartheid regime with love and deeply integrated with socio-cultural-political structure of South Africa. The internal hatred turned into love and ever since South Africa has progressed.
