Non-performance of duty by a public servant is a form of corruption. Do you agree with this view? Justify your answer.

Corruption is defined as when by person, there is favour/unfavour or misuse of power that bring tangible or intangible losses to government & public interest.

~~Therefore, Non-performance of duty by public servant~~

There are some instances where non-performance of duty leads to corruption such as:

① It is duty of police to file a FIR against any person without his/her interest, but in many instances FIR has not been filed.

② Government hospital doctors especially having own private clinic, prefer to give more time to patients of their own choice.

③ Private interest over public interest, mainly in recruitment in public sector undertaking or sanctioning of any projects.

Kautilya, Vivekananda even gita emphasis work as worship. Protestant Ethic also do emphasis that do not waste your time during working hours otherwise god will not be happy.

So, indirectly non-performance of duty leads to corrupt practices.
